‘Over the years we have worked together on many projects and I am very happy with the advice that they give me on a regular basis. All the staff are very helpful and quick to respond to any issues that we have.’

John Luxford, Managing Director
Luxfords of Weybridge

Case Study

Based in Weybridge, Luxfords has been established for over 100 years, and today the company provides many services from furniture removals, storage, shipping and many more.

The business currently employs 25 highly trained staff who display the same reliability, integrity and warm-hearted attitude that built their reputation as a caring family firm all those years ago.

In the early 90s John Luxford, managing director of Luxfords, attended a meeting with his financial advisor at the local bank, where he was informed that his business plans and projections were very limited. It was then that John decided he needed to work with a larger accounting firm, who would understand his needs better than the “one man show” he was using at the time. John had previously met various partners from TWP at a local chamber of commerce event and felt comfortable knowing that he would be working with people he had met beforehand.

TWP organise all aspects of Luxford s annual audit and taxation matters and advise the company on restructuring issues and share options. The firm has also worked with Luxford s on many special projects from property purchases and share transfers, through to bank loans.

John explains the relationship he has with TWP and why it works so well “Over the years we have worked together on many projects and I am very happy with the advice that they give me on a regular basis. All the staff are very helpful and quick to respond to any issues that we have”.
